

Now My Eye Sees You: The Wisdom of Job

Job 1:1-22 Have You Considered My Servant Job?

Sermon Outline

1. What is the book of Job?
2. Who is Job?
3. What happened to this good man?

Study Questions

What kind of literature is Job a part of? What are the implications of this?

What is the big question in the book of Job?

Who all suffers in the first chapter? What questions arise from all the ways in which people suffer?

In chapter 1, what sorts of things does Job not know but we do?

Who is Job? What do we learn about him?

Prior to the tragedies which come to Job, in what ways might we consider Job blessed?

Why does Job respond as he does? How do you think he is able to respond that way? How would you respond?

What does Job have that I don't, and what do I have that Job doesn't?

How do I respond or will I respond or have I responded when the world was taken from me, when my future security burnt up, or my wealth was stolen, or my world fell apart?

What possible good could come from studying the book of Job?

What questions well up as you read Job 1?